Home Razed In Rash Of 4 Fires

$2,000 Damage To Smalley Home, 3 Others Reported

Cameron volunteer firemen worked nearly two hours early Sunday morning fighting a fire that gutted the home of J. D. Smalley at 506 N. Travis while a second volunteer crew was called to a fire in the eastern part of the city.

The Smalley home, owned by Ollie Whittington, blazed up into flames at 2:30 a.m. and an estimated $2,000 in damages was done before firemen extinguished the flames.

Firemen were called back to the scene at 7 a.m. when the fire flared a second time.

Fire Marshall John Andres said the origin of the fire had not been determined but the family reported having trouble with some electrical wiring in the house. The Smalley's were not at home at the time of the original fire.

While one crew of firemen fought the fire at the Smalley home, a second fire was reported at [illegible] East Gillis.

The house, belonging to Grace Kohutek, was rented.

Andres said a living room suite caught fire and the mother had to come to town to report the fire. He said the quick acting firemen put out the blaze before any harm came to two children sleeping in a nearby bedroom.

Cameron firemen were called out again Monday on a false alarm and on Tuesday a car was reported on fire but flames were extinguished before the volunteers reached the scene.

School Trustees Meet Tonight In Regular Session

Cameron school trustees will meet in regular session at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the superintendent's office at Ben Milam School.

Supt. D. R. Dodson said Wednesday that school improvements, now underway, will be viewed by the trustees.

Supt. D. R. Dodson said Wednesday that school improvements are continuing with the installation of the new science lab to be ready in the near future. Workmen are new installing a new floor in the science room and equipment has arrived and is ready for installation.

Work is also underway on the Yoe gymnasium floors. The floors are being sanded and made ready prior to the beginning of basketball. The gymnasium is also used by all physical education classes during the winter months.

C Of C Honor Highway Dept.

District and local highway officials will be honored Thursday at the annual Chamber of Commerce Highway Barbecue.

The fete will be held at 7 p.m. in the city park. CC Manager Barbara Smitherman said in case of bad weather the barbecue would be at the Methodist Fellowship Hall.

C. B. Thames, district engineer of Bryan, will be among the honored guests and will give a brief report on highway construction now underway in the county and outline projects planned.

The event will also honor Joe G. Hnover, asst. district engineer, John A. Blasienz, district construction engineer; Robert H. Schreider Jr., district maintenance construction engineer; M. A. Coleman, dist. right of way engineer; J. O. Sloan, maintenance construction superintendent; Carol D. Zeigler, senior resident engineer; James A. Bowling, maintenance construction foreman of Cameron; Emmett Swafford, district appraiser and Tommie Luster, district inspector.

All members of the commissioners' court, Cameron City Council and mayor will also be recognized.

LaVert McKinney is chairman of the highway committee. He is being assisted in the planning of the annual event by other committee members, Hilliard Thomas, E. A. Perrin, Monroe Fuchs and Drayton McLane Sr.

McKinney said the barbecue gives the public an opportunity to personally show their appreciation for the fine work the highway department is doing in the county and to meet the men who direct and supervise the roadwork.

DOES IT AGAIN — Since it's National Newspaper Week, it is timely to report that Robert Mann, a former news editor here, has been named to the Sam Houston State College Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

He is editing the school weekly newspaper this semester, his last, and is doing a thorough job of it.

106-106-106

We can't add much to that note because it says something about The Herald, this year adding comics, open column format and a web press to print them on.

James Hollis, former photographer - sports editor, is now a copy editor on the sports desk of the Corpus Christi Caller-Times.

The Herald alum list grows as Mrs. Forrest (Lois) Sapp, doing news for the past two years, steps aside to assist her husband in his business.

Each of these people has had notable news beats and has contributed to The Herald's widening coverage. Mrs. Sapp said, and rightly, "That without your (area and city residents) help, The Herald could not have continued to give full news coverage to its readers."

106-106-106

We feel rather outnumbered by the people who have been part of The Herald's staff, but their success since and their contributions here, more than many realize, have been a contribution to Cameron itself.

It is perhaps surprising to them that some of the "unpopularity" that goes with learning objectivity in news becomes a basic respect almost unobtainable any other way in this business.

We find here considerable justification in a basic Herald concept that newspapers have an abiding responsibility to educate and inform, as opposed to indoctrinate, their reader. That is, as well as a weekly can.

So this National Newspaper Week, we are rather proud.

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH CONTEST OPENS IN CITY

An "Employee of the Month" program will start this month in Cameron, designed to stimulate growth in pride of the employee's occupation.

The new program is being sponsored by the Trade and Development Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

A monthly award will be presented to the winner and the outstanding employee will also receive recognition at the annual banquet.

Managers or owners will nominate one of his employees for this award. Judges will be appointed by the sponsoring committee and they will visit each place of business submitting a nomination for that particular month. All nominations will be made in strict confidence as will the names of the panel of judges.

3 Draw Murder Indictments Arraignment Set For Tues.

Judge William C. Wallace has scheduled an arraignment for three men who were indicted for murder with malice and assault with intent to murder with malice by the Milam County Grand Jury last Thursday.

Hipolito Gonzales of Troy, Phillip Camacho of Waxahachie and Theodore Gonzales of Troy will go before Judge Wallace at 2 p.m. Tuesday.

County Attorney John Henderson Jr. said at that time they will be arraigned on the charges against them, make their pleas and trial dates set on some or all the cases.

Camacho and Theodore Gonzales are out on $10,000 bond and Hipolito Gonzales is still in Milam County jail in lieu of bond.

The murder with malice and assault with intent to murder with malice indictments grew from charges on August 22 resulting from the death of Simon Amaror, 48, of Burlington, and injuries to Pedro Degallado Gonzales.

The incident allegedly occured at the LaRumba tavern in south Cameron at 11:15 p.m. August 22.

Hipolito Gonzales and Phillip Camacho were arrested and charged following the stabbing melee and Theodore Gonzales was arrested a week later.

Milam County Sheriff Carl Black, who directed the investigation, said Amador was cut several times about the head and had a large wound in his neck. Pedro was injured and required 35 stitches about the face.

Bud Simmons of Caldwell was a fourth man indicted during the September term of the Grand Jury. He drew a felony indictment for a worthless check written on Feb. 9, 1965.

COOK APPEAL

On Wednesday, October 20, attorneys for the state and for Oscar Cook will argue his appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin, according to Attorney Henderson.

The appeal will be submitted to the Court at that time and they will hear the case and then later on render their decision as to the merits of Cook's appeal from his murder conviction in Falls County on Jan. 30, 1964.

Cook was assessed the death penalty based on the verdict of the jury in connection with the shooting death of Mrs. Dan Crew of Davilla May 14, 1963.

B. F. Bonds Dies, Rites Wednesday

B. F. Bonds, 78, died at his home at 7 a.m. Tuesday following a heart attack. Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at Marek - Burns Funeral Home with Rev. Richard Freeman officiating. Burial was in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Bonds was born April 22, 1887, at Salty. He had lived in Cameron since 1914. He was a member of the San Andres Lodge 170, Little River Chapter and Council, Knights Templar, and Karem Shrine in Waco.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. B. F. Bonds of Cameron.

Pallbearers were Alvin Roberts, Charles Brady, Albert Collins, John Henderson Sr., John Hays, Jimmy Camp, Make McDermott and H. H. Stedman.

City Improvement Plans Coutinue

Chamber of Commerce directors report that civic improvement, tourism, trade development, industrial planning and membership continue to head the work list of the local C of C.

In a directors meeting Monday, Frank Luecke, chairman of the Tourist Committee, stated that a Hospitality Clinic would be held in Cameron November 16 in an effort to make ideas and suggestions available to the people who deal particularly with the traveling public.

The Hospitality Clinic will be directed by Howard Rosser of the Tourism Department, East Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. George Bowman, chairman of the membership committee, said that the recent membership drive added approximately $1,400 to the annual budget of the Chamber with the addition of 43 new members. Collections on the day of the drive totaled $342.

Working toward more civic improvement, Rev. Richard Freeman said his committee had met with a landscape architect to counsel on plans for the Cameron City Park and Oak Hill cemetery.

The architect recommended that plans for the above named locations be included in an over-all plan for the city's beautification.

Rev. Freeman also reported that money from the Hefley estate has been designated for the Civic Improvement Committee's use, amounting to $100 annually.

With the Christmas season rapidly approaching, members of the Trade Development Committee, with Bill Crockett chairman, are working on Christmas decorations making repairs and planning for new materials needed.

Chamber directors approved a motion that the dues collected on the day of the membership drive and profit of the 1965 Fair be designated for use in the decorating program.

Narvie Caperton, president of the Industrial Foundation, reported that Coy Stanphill has met with several persons to make plans for a new and adequate industrial brochure.

A layout artist of Texas Power & Light is now working on the brochure cover and the foundation plans work for compiling information required.

Chamber directors stated they would contact schools in this area voicing their interest in holding football playoffs in Cameron. The motion is subject to the approval of the school board in offering the use of the Cameron school facilities.

Youth Committed To State School

A 15-year old Cameron youth was declared a juvenile delinquent, committed to the Texas Youth Council and immediately transferred to the Gatesville State School for Boys last Saturday.

The youth appeared before the juvenile court after being taken into custody Friday as a suspect in three break-ins at Cameron business establishments. Judge William C. Wallace ordered that he be transferred to the Gatesville State School.

Break-ins were reported at Mondrik's Minimax, Milam Feeders Supply and Grimes Humble Warehouse.

"The Legend Of Primitive Man & Fire", First Place Fire Prevention Theme

(Ed. note: The Herald commends young students who came forward to participate in Fire Prevention Week and take pride in printing the winning fire pevrention theme written by Miss Cynthia Krieg, a seventh grade student in Ada Henderson School.)

THE LEGEND OF PRIMITIVE MAN AND FIRE

Primitive man was always trying to find better ways of doing things, or living. Sometimes he was lucky and stumbled upon a new thing. One of these was fire. He discovered this when he was walking around his cave. He kicked a stone and the stone hit another producing a spark. Man wondered what this strange thing was. Again and again it flew. What was this scary thing?

"Hi, I'm called fire. I try to help man. What's your name?" he squeaked.

"Are you really called Fire? Gosh, I didn't know that. Gee, but you're cute. Did you know that I was scared? My name is Pim," he rattled off.

That is how it began. They were great friends. Fire in his squeaky voice and Pim who runs things together. Yes they both had their faults. Sometimes they had quarrels, but the worst was yet to come.

Everyday Fire told Pim how to care for him. He gave him rules to remember and told him constantly not to forget.

"Remember Pim, I can't stop myself if I start to roll. I could destroy the forest if I was not cared for."

Then one day it happened. Pim forgot to put rocks around the fire and then went fishing. When he got back he saw Fire rolling towards the forest. Pim tried to stop him but he could not. The whole forest went up in smoke and all Pim could do was watch.

The next day Pim felt lost. His friend was gone and the forest was burned up. The only thing to do was to walk. Walk! Suddenly it flashed through Pim's mind. That was how he had started the fire. When he was walking he had hit a particular type of rock. It had hit another and started a fire. Pim rushed to the spot. He was so happy that he tripped over a log. He started the fire and realized that if he put the log on it that the fire would be bigger. Yes, he and fire would get along just fine.

Later man was successful with fire. Pim promised that he would not forget again and he did not. So whenever you see a fire, I hope you will remember primitive man and fire.

National Honor Society Dinner Installs Officers

Gold candles and chrysanthemums formed the setting for the annual banquet of the Yoe Chapter of the National Honor Society for the installation of officers and presentation of new members at the Methodist Fellowship Hall on Monday, October 4.

In an impressive installation ceremony the Rev. James Lafferty of the First Baptist Church used a periscope, microscope, camera, telescope, transit and miniature television set, associating the objects with duties of the officers installed. Mr. Lafferty unveiled a pair of rose-colored glasses and a crystal ball advising members to look to the future through rose-colored glasses, and predicted for the society a successful and rewarding year if the officers carried out their duties which he had outlined.

These new members were presented National Honor Society constitutions by Mr Harrison McLerran, who presided at the meeting: senior, Lynette Green; juniors, Tommy Barton, Jack Glass, John Glass, Barbara Jackson, Donald Manley; sophomores, Jane Burns, All Hefft, Terry Ripley and Aleta Zawadzke.

State Fair To Honor Rogers Girl At Award Dinner Friday

ROGERS

Treena Cannon, senior student of Rogers High School, has been notified by Ray W. Wilson, manager of youth activities of the State Fair of Texas, that she will receive the State Fair of Texas Honor Award at the Fair Honor Award Dinner Friday at the Sheraton Dallas Hotel.

Treena's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moore Cannon, and her homemaking teacher, Miss Brenda Hatcher, have also been invited to be guests of the Fair. They will be honor guests Saturday for Rural Youth Day.

During the summer Treena was busy attending youth meetings, including the Attorney General of Texas' Council on Youth and the National Convention of the Future Homemakers of America in Philadelphia, Penna. She is parliamentarian of the Future Homemakers of America, Texas Association.

The Texas State Democratic Executive Committee will actively support the passage of proposed Constitutional Amendment No. 4 which would extend the terms of statewide elected officials to four years.

Chairman Will D. Davis of Austin, Vice Chairman Mrs. Alfred Negley of San Antonio and Secretary Ray Pearson of El Paso, of the State Democratic Executive Committee, announced a statewide campaign to alert voters to the benefits of the proposed amendment No. 4 and to urge them to vote on November 2.

"Texas state government has become increasingly more complex, and efficient and effective government can best be served by a four-year term of office for the elected state officials now elected for two-year terms," Davis declared. He said that under a four-year term officials could devote more time to running state affairs than running campaigns for reelection.

"Let's Play It Safe" Ties For First Place In Fire Prevention Contest

(Ed. Note: Sara Arthur's theme "Let's Play It Safe" tied for first place in the Yoe High School contest for Fire Prevention Week. The following is her award winning theme.)

LET'S PLAY IT SAFE!

Fire prevention is not a subject that can be taken lightly. Fire is too dangerous, and too harmful to be just overlooked. Fire is a wonderful thing. It does a lot of good for us if it is used properly and is kept under control.

If we use fire to our advantage, everything would be safe, but the trouble begins when someone leaves the matches out and the little children find them and have something new to play with. Later they may not have a home or the contents of it, but more important they may not be alive. Small children do not understand fire and what it can do. Let's play it safe and keep the matches away until they are grown and know what to do with them and how to do it safely.

It is not going to do any good to make a lot of fire prevention rules unless people are going to use them. We should know how to use fire and electricity safely.

So many people never think about how many plugs they put into an electrical outlet until they blow a fuse. Then they add a penny to the fuse box and do not think any more about it until their home is on fire. Then they wonder what happened.

These are the kind of people who are their own worst enemies. But what can be done? Can we see what we are doing wrong and correct it, then try to help our neighbors be safer? We have to be safe ourselves first, because who is going to take someone else's advice when that person does not follow his own advice?

What about camp outs? Is everyone as careful as they should be? Do you watch the campfire and keep it under control? Are the smokers sure that their cigarettes are out before they leave them laying in the dry grass? When you are ready to leave, are you sure all the fires are out? If more people would ask themselves these questions and were sure they could be answered yes, there would be less forest firs. there would be less forest fires.

Fire prevention is a wonderful pay more attention to it. Sometimes we just forget about safety and think about where we are going and if we are going to get eveyrthing done. If more people would stop and think about fire, electricity and how much destruction they can cause, maybe more homes would be safer.

What about junky attics; old magazines, papers, and just the usual junk? Everyone should completely clean the attic or what ever they use for stuff like that. It is very easy for them to catch on fire from the heat or some other reason.

Smoking is a very bad hazard. It can cause a fire so quickly and easily. Some people do not think about where they throw their ashes or their cigarettes when they are finished with them. Some people smoke in bed then drop off to sleep and wake up because their bed is on fire. These people should be extra specially careful.

Let's play it safe this year, not just during Fire Prevention Week, but during every week of the year, it could save your life!

Attitudes Change At Retirement

COLLEGE STATION

Attitudes affect the change from employment to retirement, but early planning can provide for both money income and satisfactory emotional attitudes, suggests Mrs. Elsie P. Short, Texas A&M University Extension Service home management specialist.

It is just as important for retired people to plan some way to use their time as it is to plan for a comfortable place to live and money for the necessities of life. Hobbies enjoyed before retirement may still be enjoyed afterwards.

Those who like to work with others and have developed an interest in helping family, friends, neighbors and the community will find plenty to do, Mrs. Short says.

Right now is not too early to plan for a retirement containing financial independence, social, mental and physical satisfactions, according to Mrs. Short. Then it will be easier to make the transition from an active business life to a life of satisfactory retirement.

Miss Cook's Theme Wins Honorable Mention Award

(Ed. Note: This theme entitled "This Is Your Week" by Sharon Cook won honorable mention in the Fire Prevention Week contest.)

THIS IS YOUR WEEK

"Mr. John O. American, this is your week!" How would you feel if someone walked up to you and said that? This week in particular it should not seem odd. This week, October 4 - October 10 is Fire Prevention Week.

Whether you have given much thought to fire prevention or not, it's time you took some action. Mr. John Q., just look around you. The sight may not be too pleasing.

Have you been the neglectful Mr. Wrong or the thoughtful Mr. Wright? Thinking back do you take simple precautions such as checking fuses, dousing fires and just preventing common fire traps?

If you are a Mr. Wrong, you leave the job of fire prevention to your neighbors just becuase someone of your status should never stoop to doing a pauper's job of clearing out the attic.

On the other hand, if you are Mr. Wright, are you a careful, courteous person in everything you do?

Mr. John Q., the next time you exclaim of the beauty of a forest or of the ugliness of one that was the sight of a tragic fire, think that either of them, or both, is the result of you and your thoughtfulness or your carelessness.

So remember, starting today until next Sunday — this is your week! Make the most of it for it could be your last.

The 1966 Cadillac styling story is highlighted from the rear by a redesigned deck lid, new lighting in restyled bumper outers, and a new rear bumper with the lower half painted in body color.

Styling News For Full Cadillac Line

Engineered for ease of driving with more riding comfort and convenience, the 1966 Cadillac includes a freshly styled, but traditional Cadillac look in front and rear.

"In the twelve 1966 models a significant improvement in driving ease is accomplished with the introduction of Cadillac's exclusive variable ratio steering," according to Harold G. Warner, general manager of Cadillac Motor Car Division and vice president of General Motors. "This new feature gives the same good road feel in straight ahead steering while fewer turns of the steering wheel are required for parking."

New in the Cadillac line-up for 1966 is the Fleetwood Brougham. This model is distinguished by a vinyl padded roof, special moldings and the Brougham nameplate.

The Fleetwood Seventy-Five sedan and limousine are completely restyled from bumper to bumper and include all of the 1966 mechanical and engineering features.

Roselle, N. J., was the first town to have electric lights.

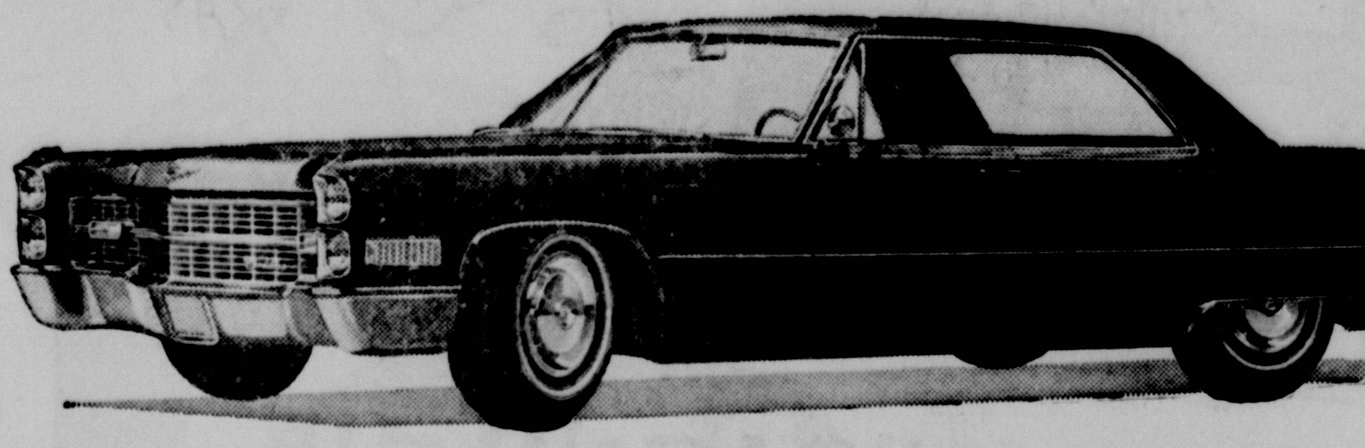
Home Rule Bill Is Given 'No' Vote By Congressman Poage

This has, for me, been a most frustrating week. The "Conference" Committee has met for eight days on the General Farm Bill. While we have reached tentative agreement on all other sections, we have no accord on cotton. Basically, the reason is that only one of the Senators on the Conference wants a cotton bill. It is mighty hard to make enough concessions to satisfy somebody who doesn't want to settle anything.

There are many questions at issue but one example is that of exempting all growers of less than 10 acres from the requirement that growers take a cut in acreage to become "cooperators." The House Bill required an equal cut. The Senate Bill provides that growers with 10 acres or less need take no cut but would be allowed the full support price. This will cost $67 million dollars. The Senators say they want to help "poor" farmers. I suggested that we better spend this money to make proportionately larger payments to small producers for retiring cotton acreage. The Senate would not hear to this. Nor would they agree to give the favored position which they confer on those with 10 acres or less to all who had a normal production of less than 10 bales.



New Elegance! New Excellence! New Excitement!

The finest of all Cadillacs is here! It greets you with an exciting new elegance surpassing even the Cadillac styling triumphs of years gone by. Its dazzling new look is highlighted by a totally new split-level grille and by new clean-swept body contours. And its interiors have never been more breathtaking! New leathers, new fabrics and new appointments (with dramatic walnut paneling on all Fleetwood models) impart an air of unrivaled distinction and luxury. And Cadillac's traditional engineering excellence rewards you with a number of suspension, chassis, and acoustical advances which result in an almost incredible smoothness and quietness of operation. Finally, consider the excitement of Cadillac's new performance. You'll marvel at the new alertness and the wonderful handling ease provided by Cadillac's exclusive variable ratio power steering. Visit your Cadillac dealer and drive the great new Standard of the World!

Milam 4-H'ers 'Going To Dogs'

By Carol Bennett
Jr. Ass't Ext. Agent

In Milam County 4-H is going to the dogs. That is, 4-H members are going to the new 4-H Dog Care and Training Project that is being offered this year in Milam County. Many 4-H'ers in the county indicated an interest in this new project during the past year by checking it on their Interest Survey Sheets.

One of the most important phases of 4-H work is teaching boys and girls to raise and understand animals. For the many 4-H Youths not living on farms, the traditional animal Husbandry Projects are not possible. The 4-H Dog Care and Training Project is an excellent answer to this problem. This project is equally worthwhile for members living on farms who have a dog.

The 4-H Dog project can serve as a tool for developing desirable habits of initiative, dignity of work, decision-making, dependability, pride of ownership, leadership and cooperation.

Dogs are becoming an increasingly important member of the family and community. The main objectives of this program are for 4-H members to share in the enjoyment of owning and understanding a dog, and to participate in the many events open to dog owners of the community.

Some coming events in Milam County concerning the 4-H Dog Care and Training Program are: A Dog Care and Training Workshop on Saturday, October 23, at the Rockdale State Bank from 9:30 -11:00 a.m., and a workshop for parents of 4-H members who are interested in the Dog Care and Training Program on Thursday, October 14, at 7:30 p.m., at the Simon George Hall in Cameron. Mr. C. C. Fawcett, Director the the Dog Care Division, Ralston Purina Company, will be the guest speaker at this workshop.

Mr. George McArthur, Urban 4-H Club Leader of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service has stressed the importance of this project and will be available as a resource person for the 4-H Dog Care and Training Project.

Miss Zawadzke's Theme Ties For 1st

(Ed. Note: Yoe High School had two themes judges believed to be of a first class nature in the Fire Prevention Week contest. The following is the theme submitted by Aleta Zawadzke.)

FIRE PREVENTION

Suddenly you are awakened, and you wonder why. Was it that fire siren you heard in the distance? Does it give you cold shivers just to hear a fire truck at night?

Do you realize that there are more than 1,500 fires every single day? Stand in front of a clock and watch the long hand creep steadily from minute to minute. Every time it passes a minute mark, say to yourself, "Another fire has broken out; perhaps somebody's dearly-beloved home is being destroyed, or some child is being terribly burned." "This could have been prevented.

Watch that clock hand for ten minutes or more — "another fire" — "another" — "somebody's home" — "some boy or girl" — "some hotel with the people struggling to escape" — "some factory with thousands of hands thrown out of work" — "another" — "another." That is the way it goes, minute by minute, night and day throughout the year. When you wake up in the morning, you may be sure that there will be hundreds of fires throughout the country before night; when you go to sleep at night; it is pretty certain that there will be hundreds of fires somewhere in the United States before morning. There are 1,440 minutes in the twenty-four hours and each day has an average of at least 1,500 fires.

America is known as one of the most careless nations of today. Carelessness can be defined as a failure to use common sense. If people used precautions in connection with fire, it would not have destroyed a half million dollars in property in one year nor would 10,000 people die because of the flames. America, by her carelessness and lack of precaution where fire is concerned, is casting upon the lap of a fire demon the lives of thousands of her good citizens, her schools, factories, homes, churches and forests every year. America, therfore, is making a sacrifice to carelessness. Not until the boys, girls, men and women understand and realize what this destruction of life and property really means to the country, will America be feee from this mad and useless sacrifice!

Americans are asked to fight fire before it starts by learning what causes fires then removing these causes one by one. There is an old saying "one ounce of prevention is worth a pound of prevention is worth a pound of cure." Now is the time for all Americans, young and old, to go on duty by using an ounce of prevention. Why don't you check constantly on fire hazards and take measures to overcome them? Help prevent fires now!

TSTA Endorses Amendment No. 5

The Texas State Teachers Association has announced full support of Constitutional Amendment No. 5 in the forthcoming November 2 election.

Dr. W. R. Carmichael, President of the Texas State Teachers Association, emphasized that approval of this amendment will improve as well as preserve and protect the Teacher Retirement System of Texas. No additional cost to the teachers or the State is involved by approving the amendment, he said.

Provisions contained in Amendment No. 5 were recommended after a two-year study by an advisory committee of elading investment people in Texas.

SOYBEAN GROWERS ADVISED

Some growers are using the chemical pentachlorophenol as a desiccant on soybeans intended for use as food, feed or oil. Such use could result in illegal risidues being found in the beans,

County Agent's Notes

Local Breeder Buys Top Boar

By J. D. Moore

Henry Richter, local Duroc swine breeder and J. D. Moore, county agent, attended the Bilt Rite Farms swine sale October 4 where Richter bought the son of "Royal Tab" boar. Bilt Rite Farm is located at Happy, Tex., just south of Amarillo, and owned by O. H. Rahlf and Larry Tackitt, successful swine breeders.

Mr. Richter's purchase was most competitive with several out-of-state bids coming in on this highest selling boar in the sale. The Bilt Rite Farm showed the reserve champion boar at the National Duroc Congress this year.

In addition to seeing some good swine, a sizeable part of the farming areas of Texas was seen on the trip. We made the trip there by way of Abiiene, Sweetwater, Roscoe, Snyder, Lubbock, Plainview to Canyon. Throught the Lubbock - Plainview area huge grain elevators are located about every 8 miles. The earlier maturing grain sorghums were harvested. A number of excellent fields of Pioneer 820 maize were ripe and ready for harvest. The Pioneer 820 crops had every indication of producing 8,000 lbs. per acre.

Good rains had fallen over the entire area. Many fields of winter wheat are planted and up to a good stand. We did not see as many cattle as you might expect to see in a heavy grain producing area. This indicates that there is more profit in producing price-supported grain for sale or to go into the loan program. This same pattern is evident throughout the mid-western corn belt area.

Most noticeable to the county agent was the type of farm homes in the Lubbock-Plainview area. Very modern, expensive brick homes were well located on every farm throughout this highly specialized farming area.

The return trip was made east from Tulia to Vernon, Wichita Falls, Fort Worth, Cameron. An abundance of dry grass was evident in most pasutres. After taking a trip throught the Panhandle area of Texas, one has a feeling of great pride in the American way of life and our ability to produce.

4-H CLUB Notes

By Ronald L. Bailey, Ass't Agent

The Milam County 4-H Dairy Club held a meeting in the County Agent's office Monday, October 4, 7:30 p.m.

The purpose of the meeting was to organize a program schedule for the club. The club elected to meet at 7:00 p.m., every first Monday of the month and have a planned program. Also a Dairy Judging Team should be organized and meet any time during the month.

A set of slides on judging and booklets showing parts of the dairy animal, how to judge and score cards, were presented at the October 4 meeting.

Members decided that the November program should be on dairy animal rations, how to make and feed the ration.

Those attending the meeting were: Bernard Kostroun, Eugene Vaculin, Edmond Tepera, Clyde and Wayne Jistel, Mr. Hubert Jistel and Mr. Pete Vaculin.

Billy Grimm, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Grimm of Thorndale, showed the Grand Champion Holstein Dairy heifer at the Heart 'O Texas Fair in Waco, Friday, October 9.

Billy, a member of the Thorndale 4-H Club, won his heifer last February at the Houston Livestock Show. He has managed and fed the heifer for the past eight months and according to the judge at the Waco Fair, the heifer would place at any major show.

The next show Billy will show his heifer in will be the Houston Livestock Show.

Newcomer in Buick's 1966 line is the Skylark fourdoor hardtop, featuring new roof design, body, grille, bumpers and ornamentation. Interiors also have new styling and materials. Standard engine in the Skylark is the V-6.

Buick Introduces 53 Model Choices In New Lineup For '66

FLINT, Mich.

A 1966 lineup of 53 new models—highlighted by a new Wildcat Gran Sport option, new body styling for Specials and Skylarks, and for the first time a Skylark four-door hardtop sedan—was introduced by Buick Motor Division.

The emphasis in 1966 has been on safety, styling and performance, and in announcing the new Buicks, Robert L. Kessler, general manager of Buick and vice president of General Motors, cited a number of safety features which will be standard equipment on all 1966 cars.

Safety items that will be standard equipment on all Buicks include padded instrument panels, outside rear view mirror, windshield washer and dual speed wipers, padded sun-visors, back-up lights, shatter-proof inside rear view mirorrs, brushed-finish windshield wipe arrms for reduction of glare and both front and rear seat belts.

The 1966 models feature new body styling, and new power plants.

Transmission refinements have been made for smoother operation.

Buick's Gran Sport options have been expanded with the addition of two Wildcat Gran Sport models—a two-door hardtop and convertible. Three Skylark Gran Sports and the Riviera Gran Sport complete this group of Buicks.

The 1966 Riviera featuring an all new body and chassis was introduced earlier this month by Buick.

Throughout the line, Buick's distinguishing feature in 1966 is a lower and wider look which has been achieved through reshaped grilles and in contours of the body sheet metal.

Specials and Skylarks have entirely new bodies, and introduce a new style in roof treatment for two-door coupes which is a unique fast back roof with a recessed back window. Four door models also have a new roof line.

Rockdale Plans Baptist Assoc. Annual Meeting

The Milam County Baptist Association will meet in annual session October 21 at the First Baptist Church in Rockdale.

Composed of 23 Southern Baptist Churches throughout Milam County, the Association has fellowship and cooperation among the churches as its primary program of work.

Jim Lafferty, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Cameron and moderator of the Association, will be in charge of the meeting. Purpose of the meeting is to hear reports from the several areas of work in the Association and in the churches.

The highlight of the meeting will be an address by Rev. Harry Hamblen in the closing session of the meeting. Rev. Hamblen is Missionary Coordinator for the Mission Commission of the Baptist General Convention of Texas. While serving as pastor of churches in Texas and Oklahoma, Rev. Hamblen has also served in Special Preaching Missions in Jamaica, Alberta, Canada and in Valdez, Alaska.

Beginning with an afternoon session at 1:30 p.m. the program will continue through the evening session, closing at 9 p.m. The evening meal will be served by the host church at 6 p.m. Nursery facilities will be provided for preschool children for the entire program.

Miss Clark Has 1st Place Poem At Ada Henderson

(Ed. note: The following poem written by Cindy Clarq, Ada Henderson student, won first place in the Fire Prevention Poem contest.)

FIRES

A forest is a beautiful sight,
Where we can play from morn to night.
But if you leave your fire a'-burning
There's no forest left for our returning.
So put out your fire when you are leaving,
And then we won't feel like grieving.
For if you don't, you shall see
What will happen to all of our trees.

Keeping Tissue Dry

To keep toilet tissue dry in camp, put a roll in a discarded two-pound coffee can. It fits the roll and serves the purpose. Use the cans with the transparent plastic caps for easy identification.

OUTDOOR TIPS —

ADDING FLOATATION

Building a small boat for use on stock tanks? If so, glue styrofoam strips under the seats to make the boat unsinkable.

CORK SOLVES PROBLEM

When that extra-live minnow on your hook keeps on diving deep into vegetation where fish can't find it, try this. Attach a small cork just above the shank of the hook. Cork should be small enough that the fish can carry it down. But it should be large enough to prevent the minnow from getting too deep.

EYEGLASS INSURANCE

If you wear eyeglasses while you ski, attach a fishing bobber to each arm of the glasses. Then if they fall off, they'll float and can easily be recovered.

TRANSPORTING LIVE BAIT

Those cardboard or plastic milk cartons, especially the larger sizes, make handy one-trip bait carriers for minnows, worms, etc.

LOCATING LEAKS

Fishing boots leaking lately? To locate the trouble spot fill your bathtub about half full of water and put the leaky boot in with the top out. Then insert a vacuum the blower. A steam of bubbles will mark the hole, tiny though cleaner hose in the boot and start it may be.

DRYING MATCHES

Wet matches can be dried by turning them over and over in your hair. It seems that the combination of oil and static electricity often recharges flagging igniter chemicals. Of course you could end up with phosphorus in your hair.

HOOK SHARPENING

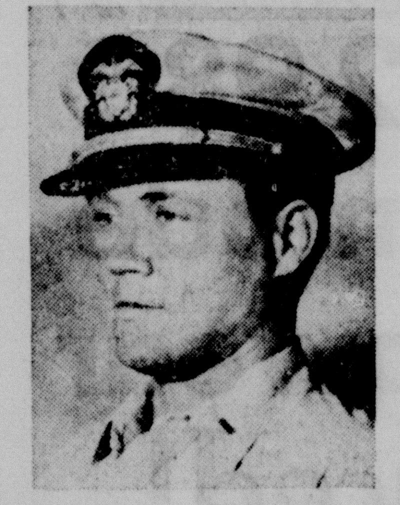
A quick way to sharpen small fishing hooks is to run them through a piece of fine sandpaper several times.

SANDING THE GUN STOCK

Getting a velvet finish on a gun stock depends primarily on the sanding. And it's the last 10 per cent of the sanding that really counts. Trick is to wet the wood and sand it with the finest sandpaper you can buy. Another trick is to use extremely fine wet sandpaper.

POT BOILETH OVER?

There is a tendency for the coffee pot to boil over while you're cooking over a campfire Eliminate this by putting a small green stick on top of the pot. Keeps everything inside.



Prison Rodeo Guest Star - Roger Smith, nationally-famous star of the "77 Sunset Strip" and "Mr. Roberts" television series will appear at the Sunday, Oct. 17th, performance of the 84th Annual Texas Prison Rodeo in Huntsville. Smith is also a popular singer and musician. He will share the spotlight with convict rodeo riders and prison entertainment groups.

Make Money Go Further

There are two ways to live better on your present income, says Mrs. Elsie P. Short, Extension home management specialist at Texas A&M University.

One is to get more for your money and the other is to put your money where it counts most.

To live bette ron your present income, avoid impulse buying and throwing your money away. Look around your house. How many things can you see that you haven't used or could have lived without? Are you guilty of buying "white elephants" which are now virtually useless?

If you answer yes, start planning better money management. Use some of these suggestions:

Buy the best, rather than the most expensive. Learn to judge quality by an item's value to you.

Consider discontinued models of well-known brands that have guaranteed replaceable parts. Second-hand items may also be good choices. The new models may not be essentially changed from the older ones and the added features may not be important to you.

Buy merchandise on sale, but be sure it is a real reduction in price and not special merchandise brought in especially as a sale drawing card.

Keep what you have in good repair. Develop the ability to see needed repairs before breakdowns occur.

Smart Mom Knows Girl's Appearance Affects Her Grades

COLLEGE STATION

It's a smart mother who knows that a girl's appearance has an effect on the grades she brings home from high school, says Mrs. Lynn Parks Stiles, Texas A&M University Extension Service consumer education specialist.

These are the years, of course, when daughters are likely to have complexion troubles, known as adolescent skin. Anxieties about facial blemishes can actually destroy self-confidence. This, in turn, can affect ability to concentrate on studies.

The best thing a mother can do is to add another subject, beauty care, to her daughter's schedule. It should not be a sophisticated routine, but a simple soap and water program that medical authorities recommend for difficult skin.

Mothers can teach daughters to apply dense, warm suds to the face like a mask. Let this mask dry, then rinse it off and apply a second coating of suds. Next rinse the skin thoroughly.

Such a simple treatment helps draw oil from the skin and flush out dirt that otherwise would cause blemishes. The treatment is better, some beauty experts say, than hard scrubbing which can injure youthful skin, adds Mrs. Stiles.

Introducing the tuned car. 1966 Buick.

What makes a car a car is styling, performance, ride and handling. Only when they're all tuned together is the car a Buick. Like this 1966 Riviera Gran Sport.

You know how well your car's engine runs after a tuneup? Buick tuning has the same effect on the whole car. Not just the engine. The whole Buick. Everything blends with everything else. Styling. Performance. Ride. Handling. All tuned to work together in harmony. That's what the tuned car is. A Buick. Only Buick is the tuned car. (And every Buick is the tuned car.) What the tuned car is is a masterful blending of all the things that make a great car greater. The Riviera for 1966 is the tuned car. It features six-passenger seating, disappearing headlights, a silently efficient new ventilating system and the kind of roadworthiness you'd expect in a car that costs twice as much. (You can get a Riviera for your desk as well as your garage. Send $1 in check or money order to Riviera, P.O. Box 68, Troy, Mich., for an accurate 1/25 scale model '66 Riviera.) But Riviera's not the only tuned car. LeSabre is, too. And Wildcat. Electra 225. Special. Skylark. Sportwagon. See them all at your Buick dealer's. The tuned car may not mean much to you now. But then you haven't had a chance to drive one yet.

Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick?

Ceremony Unites Mueck-Kostroun

A double-ring ceremony at St. Monica's Catholic Church at 10 a.m. Saturday united Miss Judith Marie Mueck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mueck, Cameron annd Phillip Wayne Kostroun son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kostroun Sr. of Buckholts.

The Rev. Paul McCallum performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of white mums. Mrs. Frank Hanel played traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of delustered candlelight satin designed in an A-line. The long sleeves came to points at the wrists. She wore a shoulder-length mantilla of English lace and carried a bouquet of carnations centered with a white orchid.

Miss Barbara Michalka of Temple was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Jane Mueck of Cameron, sister of the bride, and Miss Kathleen Kostroun of Buckholts, sister of the groom.

The bride's attendants wore identical street-length dresses of blue brocade and circular veils of pale blue net over blue brocade bows. Their bouquets were of medium yellow mums.,

Mr. Ronnie Kostroun, brother of the bridegroom, served as best-man. Groomsmen were Bernard Kostroun, brother of the bridegroom, and Martin Mueck, brother of the bride and Jerry Kostroun Jr., brother of the bridegroom.

Miss Patricia Kostroun and Mrs. Anton Klecka registered guests at the reception in Simon George Memorial Hall.

The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with the bride's bouquet. Serving in the houseparty weer Mrs. Richard Jistel, Mrs. Roy Wohleb, Mrs. Hugo Hollas, Mrs. Herman Mueck, Mrs. Howard Klement and Mrs. Jerry Kostroun Jr.

The bride is a graduate of C. H. Yoe High School and Temple Commercial College. The bridegroom is also a graduate of C. H. Yoe High School and Sam Houston State College. They will make their home in Raymondville, Texas.

Fleur-de-lis Club Has Dried Workshop

The Fleur-de-lis Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Durwood Cobb Tuesday evening for a Dried Workshop. 'Falling Leaves.' Mrs. George Kirk was co-hostess.

Preceding the workshop Mrs. Forrest Sapp, Mrs. Kenneth Thweatt and Mrs. Richard Freeman discussed dried arrangements and materials. Mrs. D. R. Dodson gave helpful information on making dried arrangements and assisted club members during the workshop.

Coffee and pie were served following the work session.

Mrs. Kenneth Thweatt won the prize.

Presbyterian Women Luncheon, Program

Women of the First Presbyterian Church will have a special Church Extension program Friday, October 15, at the Church. A covered dish luncheon will follow the program.

Mrs. Mary McLane Lawrence will be in charge of the special program which will begin at 10:30 a.m.

History Club Meets With Mrs. Harrell

The Cameron History Club met at the home of Mrs. S. M. Harrell Tuesday afternoon with 19 members and two visitors, Mrs. Niley Smith and Mrs. Grady Stidham.

Following the business meeting Mrs. John Rosson gave the program on "Growth Through Reading," an informative discussion on knowledge that can be gained from magazines, newspaper articles and books. At her request each member answered the roll with a discussion of an atircle she had recently read.

During the social hour the hostess served refreshments from the dining room, assisted by Mrs. Mary Lawrence, Mrs. K. K. Robbins and Mrs. Grady Stidham. Decorations in the dining room included an arrangement of shrimp plant in a silver bowl centering the serving table.

Cameron Yoemen, Hearne Clash At Yoe Field Friday Night In District 17-AA Opening Test

Title Contenders Highlight Action

Cameron's fighting Yoemen will get down to serious business when they open 17-AA District play Friday against the Hearne Eagles.

Pre-season predictions saw Hearne and the Yoemen fighting for the district championship and the "Red Letter" game will be the highlight of Central Texas schoolboy football.

Grid action gets underway at Yoe Field at 7:30 p.m.

The Yoemen, ranking 4th in 2-AA state football standings, will be going into the game undefeated and untied through six non-district games.

But Hearne has had some bad luck through the non-district games having six of their starters out at various times. They have a 2-4 record in non-district play.

"In general, we expect a real tough ball game as Hearne is always tough when they play Cameron," Yoe Mentor George Kirk said.

VETERAN PLAYERS

The Eagles have eight starters back from last year's team and thirteen lettermen. They also have a lot of other good reserves, Kirk noted.

"All these pre-season results don't mean a thing, it's what happens in district that counts and we hope to be ready Friday night to take whatever the Eagles hand out," Kirk said.

And the Yoemen should be ready. They are back at full strength this week. During the pre-season games halfback Doug McFarland, James Hosch and Mack McKinney suffered injuries but will be back in shape Friday night. Reserve end Jim Lafferty suffered an injury this week and may be out of action.

Kirk said the only change in the Yoe lineup will be Glen Fogle ca defensive left halfback. Fogle won the spot last week when he made two key pass interceptions and two key tackles against Round Rock.

YOE BACKFIELD

Yoe offensive linemen are right end James Vogelsang, 163, right tackle James Hosch, 143, right guard Joe Paul Mueck, 166, center Eugene Wallace, 178, left guard Frank Mikulec, 174, left tackle Dennis Rose, 184, and left end Newton Barnett, 1[illegible]6.

The Yoe defense will have Mack McKinney at safety halfbacks Burnett and Bill Goeke, 136, and linebackers McDaniel and Ray Urban, 153, Wayne Kirk, 163 and Don Manley at corner linebacker, tackles Hosch and Mikulec and guards Mueck and Rose.

PASSING ATTACK

The Eagles have a real good passer in veteran quarterback Frank Martinez. Kirk noted that if there is no receiver open, Martinez is known to take off and break loose for a good run.

Hearne's leading scorer and ground gainer is fullback Pete Martin. The returning starter also alternates at the halfback position with Bobby Cruse, another Eagle starter back this year.

Coach Ken Batson runs a 5-4 and 6-3 defense and mentors a team that stunts a lot.

Rounding out the Eagle backfield is quarterback Martinez, 156, Martin, 190 lb. sophomore at fullback; halfback Bobby Cruse, 167 lb. back from last year; left halfback Jim Baker, 157 lb. veteran and Joe Wilson, 176. Wilson and Baker alternate at the left halfback slot.

BIG LINE

The big man in the Eagle line is tackle Bear Batson weighing in at 20. The other tackle George Sisson is slightly smaller at 205 pounds. Batson is the third son of coach Ken Batson to play on the Eagle squad.

All but two of the linemen are starters back from last year. At center is Mike Griffin, 160, left end Ronny Shaw, 167, right end Marvin Zeig, 165 (defensive starter last year), guard Ken Stone, 170, and Kenny Jackson (up from the reserve team).

Hearne's big line will out weigh the Yoemen by an average of 14 pounds. Batson and Sisson bring the Eagle line average up to 180 pounds while the Yoemen average 166 pounds.

Both backfields will be similar in size with the Eagles averaging 170 pounds to the Yoemen's 165 pound average.

Buckholts Wins 16th Straight 6-Man Game, Blast Trinidad

Buckholts' high scoring Badgers will rest this week after racking up their 16th straight six-man football victory Saturday when they took Trinidad 63 - 22.

They will enter into District 11-B play October 23 when they host Turnersville.

In Saturday's game Calvin Shenkir scored 30 points and helped put eight more on the scoreboard. He scored on runs of 40 and 30 yards, a 75 yard punt return and recovered a fumble in the Trinidad end zone. He also kicked three extra points.

Larry Kudlacek added three six pointers, taking passes for 25, 10 and 7 yards.

End James Janes scored a touchdown on a 20 yard pass from Don Glaser and Joe Brady and Dennis Tomascik teamed up on a 30 yard scoring aerial for the other extra points.

The Badgers picked up 212 yards rushing and 273 yards passing to their opponent's 135 and 10 yardage totals. They also had 17 first downs and held Trinidad to only 9 first downs.

It was a passing night for the Badgers who attempted 22 and hit for 17. Trinidad attempted 12 passes and completed five. Both teams had one pass intercepted. Trinidad lost the ball twice on fumbles and had one 15 yard penalty. The Badgers had seven penalties for 75 yards.

Larry Shenkir, Robert David and Kudlacek were the Badgers' leading defenders.

Paul Wakefield scored 2 touchdowns and Archie Boggas got the other Trinidad score.

Rogers Open Dist. Play Friday, Host Granger Eleven

Rogers Eagles host Granger Friday in their first district 24-A contest.

The Eagles drew their third straight win of the year Saturday when they blanked the Holland Hornets 18 - 0.

It was the last non-district game for both teams. The third victory followed two early losses to Reicner and Rosebud. For Holland it was their second consecutive loss, after two early-season wins and a 0 - 0 tie with Academy.

Rogers scored a touchdown in each of the first three quarters and a tough defense led by Jimmy Mayfield and Louis Elkins held Holland to only 41 yards total offense, 20 of which came on the ground.

The Eagles racked up 192 yards rushing and another 69 yards in the air.

Jimmy Mayfield hit pay dirt for the first Rogers score when he went around end from five yards out to climax a 55 yard drive.

Defensive end Joe Martinez set up the second Eagle score, recovering a Holland fumble on the Hornets' 23. Fullback Mike Mayfield got the last three yards up the middle for the score.

Secondary Teams Meet Hearne Thurs.

Football will take the limelight Thursday with three Cameron games scheduled.

The Freshmen will travel to Hearne for a game at 7:30 p.m. Coach Kirk said the B-team game with Hearne had been cancelled.

Junior High teams will host their first home game when they meet the Hearne teams. The seventh grade team, with two wins and undefeated, will play at 6 p.m. and the 8th grade team takes to the field at 7:15 p.m. The 8th grade team has a 1-2 record.

LAST WEEK

Cameron B-team and Round Rock battled it out to a 13-13 tie. James Dohnalik, fullback, scoerd over left tackle and quarterback Paul Chandler went around right end. Mike Miller kicked the extra point.

The freshmen fell to Round Rock 14 - 0 for their third loss of the season.

Sparked by a five yard touchdown run by Kenny McLerran, Cameron 7th graders nipped Rockdale 8 - 0.

Rockdale came back to defeat the 8th grade Cameron team 14-6. Dennis Crouch went around left end from five yards out to score for the local team.

(Ed note: Miss Cynthia Ann Smith submitted the first place song in the Fire Prevention contest. Her song entitled "The Forest Green" is written to the tune of "You Are My Sunshine.")

The Forest Green
The other morning
I went out camping
Into the forest I love so dear.
And there before me
I saw a campfire
Someone had given but a smear.
Chorus
Stir out your campfires
Before you leave them
So we can have our forest green
The ones who do not take time to do this
Are just lazy and shiftless and mean.

Joey Mondrik Wins Temple Punt Contest

Joey Mondrik was a first place winner in the Punt, Pass and Kick Contest held at Temple Saturday. Mondrik placed first in the eight-year old group with 120.5. Closest contender in that group was Kerry Minzenmayer with 100.5.

Entrants were scored in three categories, punting, passing and place kicking off a tee. Points were given for the number of feet the ball traveled through the air in each contest.

Joey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Linky Joe Mondrik, was awarded a football, tee and football jacket. He will also be elibible to compete in the state Punt, Pass and Kick Contest.

Yoe Nip Dragons In Wild 27-16 Battle

By L. E. Sapp

Cameron Yoemen went through non-district play undefeated when they knocked the Round Rock Dragons 27 - 16 Friday in a wild, frustrating extravaganza on the gridiron.

The Yoemen were plagued until 85 yards in penalties, had two touchdowns called back, lost the ball three times on fumbles, but still came through to defeat the Dragons of District 18-AA.

Two of the Yoe co-captains, quarterback Mack McKinney and lineman James Hosch, were hampered with leg injuries. Hosch saw some action and McKinney went in only to throw passes.

But the Yoemen found they could still play strong ball and with reserve quarterback Don Mitchell, they picked up much of the 343 yards rushing while McKinney passed for 89 yards.

MC DANIEL LEADS

And fullback Mike (Bull) McDaniel saw to it that the bad breaks would not take the Yoemen out of their No. 4 ranking among the state 2A standings. McDaniel ripped his way for 189 yds. on 20 trips and scored the first Yoe TD.

A packed stadium of Dragon and Yoe fans saw a scoreless first quarter before Cameron went in for one in the second period. At the end of the third quarter the Yoemen led 13 - 3 and four touchdowns were scored in the last 11 minutes of the game, each scoring twice.

Cameron lost their chance to score on their first drive when they fumbled on the Dragon 5 yd. line.

Dan Mitchell was at the quarterback slot until they moved into scoring territory at the 11. McKinney took over and a pass to Forrest Green to the four was called back on a penalty before a Yoe fumble was recovered by the Dragons.

A tough Yoe defense held the Dragons on the 31 where they were forced to punt.

YOE RALLY

McDaniel sparked the drive to pay dirt for the Yoemen when he shot loose for 41 yds. to the Dragon 15.

Three plays in the second quarter, McDaniel found a hole through right tackle and smashed through eight yards for the touchdown. Jack McKinney kicked the ball through the uprights and the Yoemen were out in front 7-0.

Yoe halfback Don Manley intercepted a Dragon pass on the next series of plays after a determined offense moved from their own 33 to the Cameron 35 yd. line.

DRAGONS THREATEN

Taking the ball on the Cameron 14, the Dragons moved slowly to the four where a mighty Yoe defense allowed only two yards in four downs and pushed the Dragons back to the five on the fourth down.

Penalties plagued the Yoemen again after McKinney came in and passed to halfback James Hoskins who drove on into the end zone only to have the play called back.

Red flags, pass interceptions and fumbles were most of the story of the third period.

Glen Fogle intercepted a Round Rock pass setting up the second Yoe touchdown. Taking the ball on the 40, and two penalties for 20 yards, the Yoemen drove to the 12 yd. line where McKinney passed to halfback Don Manley for the tally. A kick by McKinney failed and the Yoemen had a 13-0 lead.

FIELD GOAL

Kicking specialist David Stried, quarterback, kicked a field goal for the Dragons from the 14 yd. line. It was his fifth field goal this season.

Touchdowns were the item of the night in the fourth period with Cameron scoring first when McKinney passed to end Eugene Zaleski. The drive started on the Round Rock 40 when Cameron recovered a Dragon fumble. Jack McKinney kicked the PAT.

But the Dragons soon rallied and taking the ball on their own 23 halfback Terry Stark broke loose for a 50 yard scamper before he was stopped by Forrest Green on the Yoe 26. A pass from quarterback John Zamarripa to end Randy Dayton moved them to the 4 yd. line.

FOURTH QUARTER BATTLE

Then it was Cameron's time to shine. Spurred on by a 37 yard run by McDaniel and aided by Manley and Green, the Yoemen moved to the Dragon 8.

Green got the call and went off right tackle for the Yoe score. Jack McKinney added his third good kick.

With blood in their eyes, the Dragons were still shooting fire. Ronnie Labit picked up 23 yards before he was stopped by Fogle. End Wes Chambers took a Zamarripa pass moving them yards short of pay dirt. Mays scored from the 2 going over right guard for the TD.

The loss gave the Dragons, contenders in District 18-AA, a 4-2 record for the season.

OJT To Face District Foe Here Saturday

The O. J. Thomas Bulldogs will meet the top rated 3-A Blackshere Bears of Hearne for their fourth game of the season Saturday, October 16, at Yoe Field.

OJT Coach Edward Aycox says, "If there's anything to the saying 'a bad start makes a good ending' the OJT Bulldogs should finish the season in a blaze of glory. The Bulldogs have not performed up to expectation in the three games played. Our team is experienced, large enough and have speed, however injuries have prevented us from playing a game this season at full strength."

OJT's first key injury came in practice before the first game when Larry Ray, starting left halfback, hurt his shoulder. Frederick Kelley, starting quarterback, sustained a knee injury in the third quarter of the first game and has been sidelined since then. Kelley is now doing light workouts and will be used sparingly in the Hearne game. Numerous minor injuries have kept the Bulldogs from performing at their peak.

The Bulldogs beat Belton in their only district game with a score of 48-20. They were defeated by non-district opponents, Elgin 28 - 8 and Bastrop 26 - 0.

Standouts on offense this year have been Ray, leading ground gainer, L. S. Stephen, leading scorer, Young Knight and Joe Holoway. On the line Jimmie Johnson, E. Aycox, N. Rosemond, D. Poole, D. Fillmore and E. Johnson have looked good.

The Bulldogs will play three district games in a row after the Hearne game Saturday. Homecoming game will be October 23 when OJT will face Rosebud.

District 17-AA At A Glance

Last Friday was a bad night for all teams in District 17-AA except for the Yoemen who maintained their undefeated record with a 27 - 16 win over Round Rock.

But third rated AA state contender Bellville gave the Rockdale Tigers a hard time and racked up a 30 - 0 win.

District 17-AA contender Hearne fell to a touted A&M Consolidated team 33 - 14 and Navasota and Caldwell took hard losses at the hands of their opponents. LaGrange blanked Caldwell 71 - 0 while undefeated Crockett took the Navasota Rattlers 62 - 6.

Now the 'red letter' day is upon us and the Hearne - Cameron game will be watched closely by all fans in the district. The outcome will not tell the complete story. As in the past, all eyes will be out to knock the top team off their pedestal.

Coach George Kirk hopes to have his complete starting lineup back in shape for the first district contest.

McKinney and Hosch have both had their share of leg trouble recently and Doug McFarland has been out of action. James Hoskins was injured in the Round Rock game but is expected to be ready for action Friday.

THIS WEEK'S SCHEDULE

As the district play gets underway this week, the other game, besides the Cameorn - Hearne battle, will be Rockdale at Caldwell. Navasota will have an open date.

Milano - Coolidge In Dist. 10-B Opener

Milano Eagles will take on Coolidge Friday night in their first District 10-B game of the season when they invade Coolidge field.

Last Friday the Eagles rallied in the fourth period and scored on the final play of the game to edge past the Oglesby Tigers 40-36 in a non-district six-man contest.

Milano's final game-winning points came on a 13-yard pass from Allen Wood to Phillip Lopez and a pass from Woods to Don Wyatt gave the Eagles added measure.

Milano hit back shortly afterwards when Wood's 19 yard run and a two-point kick by Grover Morgan put them out front.

The Eagles picked up 313 yards rushing and 153 yards passing and only six first downs while Oglesby had three first downs, 197 yards rushing and 33 yards passing. Milano went through the game without a penalty, had one pass interception and lost the ball four times on fumbles. Oglesby had three fumbles lost and one penalty for 15 yards.

Oldsmobile Introduces Luxury, Sports, Economy Models For '66

Oldsmobile will introduce their 1966 line of cars Thursday (today) with a full range of luxury, sports and economy models.

Gene Mitchan of Mitchan Motor Co., Cameron, said, "You'll find more that's new in the '66 Oldsmobiles from the new one-of-a-kind Toronado to the thrifty new F-85. New luxury in the Ninety-Eights. New action in the 88's. New choices in the Cutlass models. New Vista-Cruisers and F-85 wagons. Sporty new versions of Starfire and 4-4-2."

The '66 Oldsmobiles feature the following standard equipment in all models; front and rear seat belts, two speed windshield wipers and washers, outside mirror, dual back-up lights, padded sun visors and padded instrument panel.

Standard luxury item equipment in the Ninety-Eight will include power steering, power brakes and electric clock. The Cutlass Supreme will feature a new grille and optional vinyl roof.

In the 88's there will be four models of the Delta, Dynamic 88 and Jetstar 88. All feature the new "look of tomorrow."

Oldsmobile station wagons will include four models of the Vista-Cruiser, 2 or 3 seat, and the F-85 wagon, standard or deluxe.

The 375 horsepower V-8 Starfire is designed to give a gentle road-leveling ride. Inside the Starfire are chrome appointed thin-shell bucket seats.

The Olds 4-4-2 will have 350 horsepower motor, four-barrel carb, twin pipes and heavy duty suspension. There are five models of the 4-4-2, all with red-line tires.

Dr. Tyson To Serve As Interim Pastor

ROGERS

Dr. Arthur K. Tyson, president of Mary Hardin-Baylor College in Belton, has been called to the First Baptist Church in Rogers as interim pastor until a new pastor is found for the church. Dr. Tyson has served the Rogers church in this capacity in the past. He will assume these new duties on Sunday, October 24, Sunday morning and Sunday evening.

The church asked the outgoing pastor, the Rev. John E. Witte, to appoint a Pulpit Committee to lead in the search for a pastor. He announced the committee Sunday morning as follows: Alton Green, Wray Durnal, Clayton Clowers, Doyle Ray and B. F. Harbour.

Ol' Ben Milam

CIAC . . . And Cameron's Future . . . .

Cameron's Citizens Improvement Advisory Council has an important function that has gone unfilled here for the past five or six years.

This group of established civic and cultural leaders is in a position, should the City Council's wisdom provide them the breadth of decision vital to a planning group, to recommend and devise plans that will be the Cameron of the future.

They will require the co-operation of many others in their quest to give serious consideration to the physical development of Cameron and the fiscal means by which it is done.

We wish the nine-member panel well in their important work, joining the newly organized Cameron Industrial Foundation Board, a busy Cameron School Board, the City Council and an aggressive Cameron Chamber board and Chamber of Commerce, whose 43 new members is a city record, pushing to 198 the active membership.

CIAC can assure that good things continue to happen in Cameron.

Highway Barbecue . . . .

The Herald joins with Cameron civic leaders in welcoming Bryan District Texas Highway Officials to Cameron for the annual barbecue.

The job being done on Milam highways attests to the deligence C. B. Thames and his staff have followed through in Milam County.

In fact, Milam County has developed further in highway mileage in the past five years than most nonmetro Texas counties. And it was because of considerable co-operation of city, county and state officials in putting Milam road system on the top shelf.

The barbecue for highway officials and their wives is a token of friendship this ol' town serves up each fall as a continuing "thank you" for the new and better roads.

Underground Wiring Circuits Desirable

COLLEGE STATION

More and more farmers and homemakers are finding that underground electrical circuits to buildings, light posts and equipment are practical, says W. S. Allen, Extension agricultural engineer with Texas A&M University.

"Electrical cables that are especially designed for underground installations have been on the market for many years," he points out "These cables will withstand the moisture and corrosion present in wet soil."

Allen cautions that cables intended for dry locations in residential construction should never be used for underground circuits.

Since more wire resistance heat is contained within the cable, he adds, it is necessary to increase by about 20 per cent the size of underground cables. Or it could be said that a cable used underground would carry only 80 per cent as much electrical current.

Underground cables should be buried deep enough to avoid the risk of being contacted by any farm implement such as a plow or cultivator. Where these buried cables may be run over by heavy loads, a board laid over the cable before the trench is backfilled will help distribute the weight above the cable.

In planning for unusual installations involving long distances, expensive equipment, or heavy loads, it is safest to seek the advice of the local power supplier, an engineer, or a qualified contractor, the engineer advises.

Bobbypins for Clothespins

Bobbypins make handy clothespins in camp. Ordinary fishing line will serve as a clothesline.

The lasso was used in early Egypt.

BEEF PRICES SPREADS

The spread between the price the farmer receives for U.S. Choice grade cattle and what the consumer pays for the same grade of beef at the retail store is called the marketing margin or price spread, explains Ed Uvacek, Extension livestock marketing specialist at Texas A&M University. It has increased, he adds, 12.6 cents per pound from 1949 to 1964 because of increased costs, more packaging, more trim and in some cases more transportation. Of the increase 9.1 cents can be attributed to the wholesale-retail spread and 3.5 cents to the farm-wholesale spread. The spreads vary from month to month due to variations in the short-term supplies of cattle.

ST. ANTHONY 4-H

The St. Anthony 4-H Club met at Simon and George Hall. The new assistant agent, Miss Bennett, was inntroduced. Mr. Ronald Bailey talked about "Dog Care and Training" and led the group singing. The next meeting will be a talk on "Outdoor Cooking."

Uncommonly good cooks use clean, modern gas

Why does gas cook cleaner? When you turn off a gas range it's off. Cooking stops. There's no hangover heat to cause scorching, burning and boilovers. Broiling is cleaner, too, Because you can keep the broiler door closed. The flame consumes the smoke. And with a gas range, all burner parts can be washed easily. Even the oven and broiler doors come off on many models. Uncommonly good suggestion: see the modern gas ranges now on sale at your favorite Gas Appliance Dealers—or Lone Star Gas.

Amendent Campaign On

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN

Campaigns now are underway for and against the 10 proposed constitutional amendments to be voted on November 2.

However, little is being said on behalf of perhaps the most controversial of all the proposals—extending the terms of office of the governor and other statewide officials to four years. Gov. John Connally promised an all-out drive for it. Organized labor strongly opposes the term stretch-out.

A 46-member committee of leading citizens, headed by Dallas banker Ben H. Wooten, is pushing Amendment 1 to increase the state college property tax levy for college building purposes from five to 10 cents. Opposition to the tax increase is developing in San Antonio.

State Bar Association is battling for Amendment 8. It provides for automatic retirement of over-age judges and sets up a commission to recommend disciplinary action against misbehaving judges.

A variety of groups have kind words to say for Amendment 2 to increase the Veterans' Land Fund to $200,000,000 and revive the program of long-term, low-interest loans to veterans for farm-ranch land buying. But there is opposition here, too.

Other amendment proposals:

Permitting Texas' participation in cooperative federal-state programs of assistance to and medical care for aged, needy and handicapped; clarifying investment authority for the trustees of the teacher retirement system; authorizing the Legislature to set up an $85,000,000 student loan fund; exempting certain hospitals from local property taxes; permitting the Legislature to raise salaries of Speaker of the House and Lieutenant Governor and to increase lawmakers' expense allowances from $12 to $20 a day; and lengthening terms of state representatives from two to four years.

Many observers have expressed concern that opposition to the four-year-terms amendments may spread over to other less controversial measures. A light voter turnout is forecast.

ILLNESS STRIKES GOVERNOR

On advice of his doctor, he cancelled speeches in El Paso, Paris, Houston and Dallas. He's taking no chances on a relapse, since he is scheduled to leave the country for Japan and Viet Nam on a State Department-sponsored tour for governors late this month

TEXAS BUYS PLANE

State is buying, for $85,000, a used, 11 - passenger twin-engined airplane for use of the governor and other state officials.

Legislature this year appropriated $275,000 for purchase of the plane and allotted another $150,000 to maintain it. But Connally elected to save money and invest in a time-tested used model which has been completely reconditioned and equipped with latest safety and communications equipment.

COURTS SPEAK

State Supreme Court, reversing lower courts, threw out State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert's cancellation of Houston tobacco wholesaler Mair J. Schepps' ("House of Tobacco, Inc.") state permit.

Court, in one of its 114 rulings opening day of its 1965-66 session, said Calvert's cancellation was unconstitutional because he held no hearing on case.

Harry M. Harrington Jr., Longview oilman asked court to throw out as unconstitutional the law under which attorney general has brought more than 100 civil penalty suits against slant-well operators and won more than $1,600,000 in penalties for state. Harrington, with three others, was assessed $304,800 in penalties.

High court in other cases:

—Agreed Shell Oil Company should be permitted to install its trademark on seven service stations leased from El Paso Natural Gas Products Company.

—Declined to review lower court dismissal of Lower Neches Valley Authority suit against City of Beaumont.

—Set a hearing December 1 in controversy over Hurricane Carla insurance claims.

—Rejected effort of Corpus Christi lawyer to get two other attorneys disbarred.

RECORD LEASE SALE

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler said addition of $6,800,000 from last state oil and gas lease sale of 1965 brought the year's total to a record $35,000,000.

Sale covering 131,660 acres of land located throughout the state averaged over $52 per acre on bonus payments. High bids were made by Phillips Petroleum Company which paid $293,760 for each of two Gulf of Mexico tracts in Brazoria County.

All leases, except four river and bayou tracts, were awarded by the School Land Board for five-year terms and a one-sixth royalty on production. River and bayou tracts were leased for two years.

New income boosted permanent public school fund to over $652,-000,000.

COTTON PACT SIGNED

Threat of a Texas embargo on Mexican cotton was ended last week with the signing of a new agreement by U.S., Mexico and Texas regulating planting on both sides of the border.

Agreement, reached in two-day conference at Brownsville and Matamoros, set planting dates of February 1 - March 31; stalk destruction deadline at August 31; and plow-up by September 15. Expirmental late planting would be permitted only at agricultural experiment stations in Matamoros and Rio Grande Valley Areas.

AG RULES

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has ruled a Commissioners Court may not lease a county hospital if the lease allows the lessee to encumber the land, buildings and equipment. The court may not create debts in any manner other than time warrants or bonds duly voted upon by the property holders of the county.

In other rulings, Carr said:

—Commission for Indian Affairs may execute long-term leases with federal agency for public housing on tribal land—but only with approval of a majority of Indians on Alabama - Coushatta Reservation.

—Reserve for bad debts and reserve for bond depletion for First Lockhart National Bank are not taxable to bank, but should be taken into consideration in determining value of bank stock for ad valorem tax purposes.

—Tabloid "National Informer" and "National Tattler" publications meet test of "weekly newspapers."

—Parks and Wildlife Department is authorized to participate in Land and Water Conservation Fund Act and receive federal grants-in-aid.

MODERN STATE PARKS

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department has released a full color film, available to clubs and various other groups, depicting the step-by-step conversion of areas into public recreation parks.

Film shows how state funds have been put to use in modernizing state parks all across Texas.

DRAFT TALK

Young men who married before August 27 may be called for physical-mental examinations by some Texas draft boards in November. This, to help fill the Texas quota of more than 6,000 men.

Col. Morris S. Schwarz, state Selective Service director, said the decision was made because some local draft boards may not have enough men otherwise.

Order doesn't pertain to married men with children.

Draft-age men are warned by Selective Service that it's a criminal offense to mutilate draft cards and subjects draftee to five years imprisonment, a fine up to $10,000, or both. Destroying a card can speed up induction, warning said.

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED

House Speaker Ben Barnes named Rep. Steve Burgess of Nacogdoches to South Central Interstate Forest Fire Protection Compact Advisory Committee.

He designated Reps. Neil Caldwell of Angleton, L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi and Renal B. Rosson of Snyder as delegates to conference on workmen's compensation and rehabilitation in Oklahoma City this week.

Barnes appointed Reps. W. T. Dungan of McKinney, John Ray Harrison of Pasadena, Alonzo W. Jamison Jr. of Denton, George H. Richards of Huntsville, and Vernon J. Stewart of Wichita Falls to the House Interim Committee on Juvenile Crime.

State Securities Commissioner William M. King announced addition of J. Alan St. John to his staff as securities analyst. Other additions announced by King: attorneys Dain Whitworth, J. E. DeVilbliss and Hugh Wright; and securities analyst Lewis Keith.

TEXTBOOK PROTEST

A total of 324 textbooks are being studied by the State Textbook Committee for possible adoption in Texas public schools, but five are being protested.

All of the books protested deal with economics, and all of the publishing houses involved have filed answers to the protestants, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Gabler of Longview.

MENTAL RETARDATION

First Governor's Conference of Mental Retardation, climaxing a two-year statewide study of the problem, will be held March 17-19 in Austin.

Conference will be charged with the task of providing ecommendations on how to provide a better life for the mentally retarded.

Twelve task forces developing a tentative plan to combat the problem have slated October 16-17 meeting in Austin.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear Editar:

I found a copy of a national magazine snagged on a fence out here on this Johnson grass farm yesterday, I don't know how it got here, it was too thick and heavy for the wind to blow it in and it didn't have any neighbor's name on it, although I was careful not to look till I'd gotten through reading it, and I was very interested in an editorial I ran across.

This editorial was thanking farmers and ranchers for doing such a magnificent job in feeding America at such a low cost.

According to it, in the last few years, the retail price of food has risen 14 per cent, but the price farmers get for raising it has dropped 15 per cent. At the same time, the cost of cars, including gas and repairs, has risen 54 per cent.

This big-city magazine was saying America owed a big thanks and a long round of applause to the farmer and rancher for this splendid job.

Now this is all well and good, but as far as I'm concerned I'd much rather have seen an editorial lambasting us for getting 15 per cent more instead of 15 per cent less for what we sell.

You can't make me believe that a 1966 model automobile is 54 per cent better than a 1955 model steak or bushel of corn or maize.

Moreover, the editorial pointed out, medical costs are up 72 per cent, but, try as hard as I can, I can't make any ache I have feel 15 per cent less painful than it did a few years ago.

I don't know what the solution to the farm problem is, any more than Congress does, but I have a notion it won't be discovered till every magazine you pick up has started jumping on farmers and ranchers for their outrageous price increases. What agriculture needs is an editorial entitled "These Gouging Farmers."

Don't know when this will happen. I've tried raising the price of my stuff, but nobody pays any attention to it.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

TAKE YOUR PROBLEMS TO CHURCH THIS WEEK

Millions Leave Them There!

Just Whittling Or Making Something?

Whittling and life have certain similarities. Some lives prove great gifts to mankind — leaders, scientists, physicians and ministers — to name but a few. Other lives just drift or are "whittled" away leaving nothing beneficial or beautiful behind.

The church can and often does lend a helping hand to put direction into lives that are drifting because of some misfortune, loss or turn of events that has destroyed faith. The church salvages lives and gives them direction and incentive to become useful and admirable citizens. If you know of someone whose life has become mainly "whittlings", who has not tried church attendance for direction and guidance, try to prevail upon him to accompany you to services. You may well be responsible for providing him with new bonds of hope.

COMMUNITY IMPROVEMENT

Communities participating in the TCIP now total 153, reports Reagan Brown, Extension sociologist at Texas A&M University. Enrollment deadline is January 31, 1966. Brown added that any unincorporated community or incorporated communities of 500 residents or less are eligible to enter the program this year. Small towns, he says, can have a future if the residents will develop plans and work hard at carrying them out.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Who Owns a Letter?

Interesting letters may give birth to interesting notions. Such as:

"I'd better not throw away this letter from Fred. He might become famous some day, and then the letter could be worth a lot of money as a collector's item."

Suppose Fred really does become famous and his letter valuable. Would it belong to you, because it was sent to you? Or would it belong to Fred, because he created it?

The law's deft solution is to divide the ownership of a letter into two separate rights—the right of possession and the right of publication. The recipient has the right of possession of the paper and ink. He may keep the letter as a memento, sell it to a collector, or even toss it onto a bonfire if he pleases.

But the right of publication—to make copies and exploit it as a literary work—still belongs to the original writer.

This division of rights was illustrated in a famous lawsuit involving some personal letters written by Mary Baker Eddy, founder of Christian Science. After Mrs. Eddy's death, her executor tried to prevent the auctioning of these letters.

The court ruled that the sale itself could not be prevented, because Mrs. Eddy had given away the right of possession when she first mailed the letters. But the court did forbid reprinting of the letters in advertisements of the auction, because Mrs. Eddy had never given away the right of publication.

Also, publication of a letter without the writer's consent may be justified by the necessities of law enforcement. Thus, when a woman was charged with adultery, incriminating letters she had written were held admissible in court even though she tried to keep them out.

But as a rule, the separate rights of possession and publication will be kept intact. For the law is simply lending form to the instinctive promptings of fair play.

As one court put it, in denying a man's demand for the return of love letters he had once sent to a woman:

"According to befitting decorum, such letters, written to her to keep and read and cherish, are hers."

Of course, circumstances alter cases. For example, if you write a letter-to-the-editor, you are obviously giving the editor not only the right of possession but the right of publication as well.

Mrs. F. H. Wied has returned home from Hawaii and had such a wonderful time there.

ROGERS NOTES

The monthly meeting of the Rogers Parent-Teachers Association was held in the school cafetorium Monday night with the president, Darwin Schwertner, in charge.

Mrs. Ernest Schiller, program chairman, presented the program which opened with a prayer by Mr. Melvin Allen, Minister of the Rogers Church of Christ. There was a panel discussion on Youth Serving Groups by the local chapter of the Future Homemakers of America, Donna Gunter president. Donna also served as moderator of the discussion.

President Schwertner called on the carnival chairman, J. H. Merka, and co-chairmen Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Psencik, to give a report on the school carnival held last Saturday night; also the division chairmen. Merka reported a total income at the carnival of $2,904.72, with expenses of $934.80 leaving a net income of $1,964.47. The profit will be spent on various projects of the Association for the welfare of the childern of the school district.

At the recent Area VII Future Homemakers of America meeting in Austin, Treena Cannon of the Rogers Chapter brought greetings to the body from the State FHA Association, serving as area vice president in the absence of that officer. Treena is a state officer.

Pamela Gotcher was a member of Area VII chorus. Miss Brenda Hatcher, sponsor, was a banquet guest accompanying Treena Cannon. Mrs. Bernice Evans, the other sponsor, also attended the meeting, along with these girls: Shirley Harper (voting delegate), Linda Farrell, Donna Gunter, Barbara Doskocil, Pauline Tomasik, Helen Coufal, Shirley Pechal.

Mrs. Johnnie Martin, head English teacher in Rogers High School, and Mrs. Selma Cannon, junior high English teacher, attended the District X Texas Joint English Committee for School and College meeting held in Austin Friday, October 8, at St. Edwards University. The theme of the meeting was "World Understanding Through the Study of World Literature."

Each fall this workshop is held to consider a particular problem of interest to teachers of English on the elementary, junior high, senior high and college levels of teaching.

10 Constitutional Amendments Await Voters Yes Or No Nov. 2

(The Herald presents the first in a series of three articles by Sen. Murray Watson on 10 constitutional amendments to be considered by Texas voters in the November 2 election. Ed)

WACO

Texas voters will go to the polls again November 2, this time to say "yes" or "no" to 10 more proposals to amend the Texas Constitution.

The proposals range from money for college construction to four-year terms for state administrative officials and state representatives.

Proposition No. 1 on the ballot would increase the tax from 5 cents to 10 cents on the $100 of assessed value, and would add five colleges to the list, Angelo, Pan American at Edinburg, Arlington State, Midwestern at Wichita Falls and the University of Houston, to the list of those sharing in the proceeds of the tax. The 17 colleges and universities would be empowered to handle the mounting tide of college students.

Proposition No. 2 on the ballot is a proposal for extension of the veterans land program by $200 million. This is the program first authorized in 1946, by which the Veterans Land Board buys land and resells it to veterans, giving them 40 years at 4.5 percent interest to pay for it.

No more loans can be made from earlier bond issues after this December, so the program will end unless the voters allow the Veterans Land Board to issue another $200 million in bonds. So far, the veterans land program has earned more in interest than it has cost to borrow the money. Present predictions are that when the present farms and ranches are paid out, the state will wind up with a profit of more than $80 million, since veterans pay one per cent higher interest than it costs the state to borrow the money. Last year, the fund made a $2,500,000 profit from this spread in interest rates.

Of interest to more voters, perhaps, is Proposition No. 3, the so-called medical care amendment. It is highly complicated, but in essence it would extend the present hospitalization and medical care programs of the Federal-State welfare agencies, now going only to 230,000 persons over 65 on old-age assistance rolls, to cover also the 66,000 needy dependent children in 19,000 families, the 4,800 needy blind and the 9,600 needy persons who are totally and permanently disabled.

But the amendment is important to the 230,000 already getting medical care, because Congress has amended the Kerr-Mills law to say that unless a state provides medical and hospital care for all categories of people on the welfare rolls, it cannot get federal aid for part of them.

This amendment retains the $60 million annual ceiling on state funds which can be spent for assistance to the four groups of needy persons. It also tries to eliminate the need for future public welfare amendments to the Constitution, by giving the Legislature a generalized authority to set regulations on programs when they are required by Congress in the future. A further facet of the amendment is that it would allow old-age assistance payments to non-citizens over 65, who are needy, and who have lived in Texas as long as 25 years.

State Welfare Commissioner, John H. Winters says this is one welfare amendment which will not increase state expenditures. Despite the addition of three groups of needy to hospital care lists, the Legislature was able to reduce appropriations from $13,500,000 a year to $12,054,000 a year for the medical assistance program. This is because a part of the medical needs of those over 65 will be paid for through federal social security after July 1, 1966, and the predicted drop in state spending for the 230,000 persons over 65 will more than make up for the cost of the three new programs.

This amendment also would raise from 16 to 21 the maximem age for dependent children, if they remain in school past age 18. Again, this is to conform with the national policy set by Congress

Schiller To Attend Tourist Conference

State Rep. Milton Schiller will attend the Tourist Development Conference in Austin, October 14 at the request of Gov. John Connally. Schiller is one of a number of members of the State Legislature who will be taking part in the day-long conference.

Schiller pointed out that Central Texas highways were carrying increasing numbers of in-state and out-of-state tourists and emphasized the importance of backing Governor Connally's tourist development activities. "Some 14.2 million persons visited Texas in 1964, spending $680 million and creating an estimated 152,000 jobs for Texans," Schiller said. "It is estimated," he added, "that this activity resulted in the $53 million incerase in the state treasury in the form of taxes."

Report Cards Today, Except First Graders

Students in Ben Milam and Ada Henderson will receive their six-weeks report cards Thursday (today) with the exception of first grade students, Dr. Herman D. Brown, principal, announced. High school students received report cards Wednesday.

"The evaluation of a first grade student is difficult at the beginning of the school year since much of the school day is devoted to the establishment of set routines and becoming acquainted with the new environment," Dr. Brown said. First grade teachers will make home visits to discuss student progress with the parents.

Brown urged that parents carefully examine the report card which indicates the academic progress of the student. He said parent - teacher conferences are welcome at all times especially for failing students. Conferences will be scheduled at the end of the school day. Parents desiring conferences should contact the building principal to establish the time for a meeting.

LOW-LEVEL FEEDING

Tests conducted by workers of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Beeville indicate that cattle getting a low-level of roughage in feeding rations made the most economical gains compared with those getting rations with high-levels of roughage. Feeders are using rations containing 90 per cent or more of concentrates due to the increased costs of roughages, including their transportatiin and handling.

SELF ANALYSIS QUIZ

How Good Are Your Church Manners?

By Jane Sherrod Singer

The same people who are considered to be polite and courteous can be sorely lacking when it comes to good manners in church. Let's see how you rate on these questions.

	YES	NO
1. Do you ever find yourself sending messages by mouthing, writing notes or pantomiming to someone you know?	( )	( )
2. If you come early and take an aisle seat, do you expect people to step over you to find their places?	( )	( )
3. If you know the Bible passage, do you say it along with the pastor or priest during his sermon?	( )	( )
4. Is it hard for you to sit still inchurch?	( )	( )
5. Do you wear your coat or wrap into church and take it off during the sermon?	( )	( )
6. Is it hard for you to stay awake during the services?	( )	( )
7. Are you frequently amused during a sermon when the subject is serious?	( )	( )
8. Do you make it a habit to see if all your friends are in church?	( )	( )
9. Is it difficult for you to keep your mind from wandering during the service?	( )	( )
10. Do you take a long time to talk with the pastor or priest, after church is over?	( )	( )
11. Are you uncomfortable in church if you feel you are not dressed in the latest style?	( )	( )
12. Is it hard for you to keep from whispering?	( )	( )
13. Do you go to church primarily because it is the thing to do?	( )	( )
14. If someone were sitting in the spot where you usually sit, would you ask him or her to move?	( )	( )
15. Do you make a show of how much (or how little) you are giving during collection?	( )	( )

SCORING: Give yourself two points for each "no" answer.

30 points—Your priest or pastor is very happy when he sees you in church. He looks for you and to you as the perfect member of the congregation, a person who is in church, not only to learn, but to set an example.

22 to 28 points—Your church manners are very good. Once in a while you slip, but you really don't intend to do so. You are basically thoughful and know the meaning of religion.

12 to 20 points—You need to think through the reasons you go to church. Consideration for the solemnity, your priest or pastor and your fellow man should be taken into account. Remember Matthew VII:12.

0 to 10 points—Exercise your basic self control. You will be surprised how good you will feel when you can answer all these questions with a "NO".

BULLS OUT-GAIN STEERS

In a recent 182-day feedlot test conducted at Texas A&M University's Coastal Bend Experiment Station, Beeville, bulls out-gained steers and required less feed per pound of gain. Slaughter data revealed that rib-eye area, yield grade, percentage of boneless cuts, external fat and dressing per cent favored the bull carcesses while USDA grades favored the steers.
